

KATHERINE ANNETTE LETT

Katherine Annette Roddenberry Lett, 69, of Folkston, passed away at her residence March 7. She was born in Folkston on March 12, 1948 to the late James G. Roddenberry and Bernice Chesser Roddenberry. She graduated from Charlton County High School in 1966 and went to Freewill Baptist Bible College.

She retired from Southeastern Bank after 30 years of service. She was a faithful member of Victory Baptist Church and served in many capacities. She served on the Board of Directors for the Okefenokee Wildlife League and volunteered at the Okefenokee Wildlife Refuge. She was part of the original “Roddenberry Sisters” singing group.

Later in life, the three things that brought her the most joy was her faith in the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, her children’s choir at Victory Baptist Church and spending time with her granddaughter, Emma, whom she adored.

Along with her parents; she was preceded in death by her four brothers Gadson, Clayton “Babe”, Jack and Barney Roddenberry; and a sister Betty Roddenberry Owens.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law Cheryl and Ray McMillan; granddaughter Emma McMillan; five sisters Doris (Allen) Lloyd, Debbie Todd, Latrelle (Kyle) McDowell, Judy (Revis) Drury and Sheila (Tommy) Carter; 14 nieces; 18 nephews; 63 great-nieces and nephews and 25 great-great-nieces and nephews.

The family received friends Saturday, March 10 at Shepard-Roberson Funeral Home in Folkston. Funeral services were held Sunday, March 11 at Victory Baptist Church. Burial followed in Sardis Cemetery with Rev. Tim King, Rev. Keith Lloyd and Rev. Ray McMillan officiating.
