

CRAIG MARSH

Craig Marsh, 89, of Callahan, passed away April 18. Craig was born in Portal, Georgia on January 11, 1929, the youngest of four children. Upon graduation from Georgia Teachers College, now Georgia Southern University, in 1950, he and his wife Sue taught school in Brooklet, Georgia for two years. In 1952, he moved to Callahan to own and operate a Gulf Service Station for 17 years. He returned to education after earning a Master's Degree from the University of Florida, serving as an Administrator and then as a four-term Superintendent of Schools for Nassau County. He retired in 1993 to devote more time to his family and pursue his lifelong love of hunting. Craig was a Christian and a member and deacon at First Baptist Church Callahan.

Craig is survived by his wife of 67 years, Sue Bailey Burks Marsh; sons Barry of Callahan and Ed (Sharon) of Griffin, Georgia; grandchildren Michelle Marsh Adams, Justin Marsh and Caroline Marsh; great-grandchildren Destini Brock, Faith Hanscom, Taylee Marsh and Storm Adams; great-great-granddaughter Harlee Brock; sister Peggy Weatherford of Twin City, Georgia. He is preceded in death by his father Harville Marsh; mother Eunice Smith Marsh; brother George Marsh; sister Betty Shuman; and a granddaughter Amanda Marsh Caron.

A viewing was held April 22 in the Nassau Funeral Home Chapel. The funeral service was held April 23 at the First Baptist Church of Callahan with Pastor Lynn Hyatt officiating. Interment followed in Jones Cemetery.

Condolences may be expressed at www.nassaufh.com. Arrangements by Nassau Funeral Home, Callahan, 904-879-1770.