

NEAL W. HIGGINBOTHAM

Neal “Cotton” Wallace Higginbotham, 88 of Callahan, went home to be with the Lord on April 24. He was born on December 22, 1929 in Jacksonville to Otis and Jessie Higginbotham. Neal proudly served his country in the late 1940s in the US Navy. He worked as a local cattle farmer and loved to hunt and fish. He was married to the love of his life, Naomi, for 68 years.

A loving husband and friend, Neal is survived by his loving wife, Naomi Irene Higginbotham; sons Raymond (Mary Ann) Higginbotham, Albert “Buddy” (Shari) Higginbotham and Chuck (Joyce) Higginbotham, eight grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

The family will receive friends on Friday April 27 in the Nassau Funeral Home Chapel from 4 – 5 p.m. with a service beginning at 5 p.m. with Rev. David Patrick officiating.

Condolences may be expressed by signing the guest book at www.nassaufh.com. Arrangements by Nassau Funeral Home, Callahan, 879-1770.
