

CARL 'BUD' ADIN, JR.

Carl "Bud" Hugo Adin, Jr., 68, of Callahan, passed away unexpectedly Thursday, June 7 at his home. Bud was born July 25, 1949. He graduated from Xenia High School where he was the lead singer in the band Integrated Circuit. After completing college at Eastern Kentucky University, he moved to Florida where he began teaching Business Education at Callahan Junior High School and later at West Nassau High School. After several years teaching, he changed jobs to begin working for Lockheed Martin in Kings Bay, Georgia, where he retired in August 2010. Bud loved to be outside, cook, sing loudly and proudly cheer on the Cincinnati Reds and Bengals and the Jacksonville Jaguars. He rarely met a stranger and tried to make everyone around him feel special and important. He is dearly loved by many and will be greatly missed.

Bud will be lovingly remembered by his wife Shelia Pickett; his daughter Dawn Adin (John Buchner); his step-daughter Mandy (Lee) Chestnut; step-sons Bobby (Laura) Pickett and Trace Pickett; brother-in-law Bob (Carolyn) Toleman; nephew David Toleman; and grandchildren Lilliana and August Buchner, Alexis Chestnut, Clara Jane Pickett and Gunnar, Gage and Gentry Pickett; as well as extended family and many friends. He was predeceased by his mother Helen West Cross; father Carl Hugo Adin, Sr.; step-father Harold Cross; a sister Doreen Toleman; and aunt Sigrid Brackney.

The family will receive friends at 6:45 p.m. Thursday, June 14 prior to the memorial service at 7:30 p.m. at Callahan Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the National Breast Cancer Foundation.

Callahan Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
