

WENDY WOOD BARGERON

Wendy Wood Bargeron, 57, of Jacksonville, went home to be with the Lord on July 12 at St. Vincent's Hospital while her sons held her hands. Wendy was born December 25, 1960 in Waycross, Georgia to John Edward Wood and Marie Ann (Tanner) Wood. Wendy grew up in Jacksonville, where she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior before moving to Callahan where she began 7th grade at Callahan Junior High (Go Ramblers!). At the beginning of her senior year at West Nassau High School, Band Director "Colonel" George Bowers appointed Wendy as Captain of the 'marching Warriors' and the band went to State Competition twice and scored a Superior rating in both marching and concert. Wendy was a 1978 graduate of West Nassau. After graduation, she married Wayne Bargeron. She began her nursing studies where she became a Registered Nurse and practiced nursing for 34 years. During this time she and Wayne were blessed with two sons Joey and Andy. Later, Wendy married Randy Alexander of Norfolk, Virginia. Wendy was a very proud Nana of her three grandsons and loved them dearly.

Wendy is survived by her mother Marie of Callahan; her sons Andy Bargeron of Tallahassee and Joey (Shiney) Bargeron of Macclenny; and three grandsons Kyle (13), Silas (5) and Preston (2); her brother Ed Wood, Jr.; a sister Sherry (Johnny Ray) Harrell; and two nieces, several aunts, cousins and other relatives. She was predeceased by her father Ed Wood, Sr.; nephew John Wood; and husband Randy Alexander.

The family received friends prior to the funeral service Saturday, July 14 at Callahan Funeral Home with Bro. Lynn Hyatt officiating and her cousin Calvin Thomas delivered the eulogy. Burial followed at Jones Cemetery in Callahan.

Pallbearers were Justin Bullard, Jack Humphrey, Jimmie Lankford, Matt Nobles, Travis Stevens and David Thompson.

Arrangements were under the direction of Callahan Funeral Home, 879-2336.
