

ALTHEA MICHELLE LOSCO

Althea Michelle Losco, 66, went to be with her Lord and Savior on September 20. Michelle was born on September 19, 1952 in Jacksonville. She was preceded in death by her parents James and Marceline Brown; and also her brothers Jimmy Brown and Lenny Brown.

Michelle was a lifelong resident of the Callahan/Jacksonville area. After graduating, she started a career at Independent Life Insurance, later deciding to be a stay at home mom. She was a loving wife, mother, and nana. She will be remembered by family and friends for her sweet spirit, her smile and her love for the Lord. She was a prayer warrior and member of Live Oak Baptist Church. Michelle was an avid horseman, some might even say a “horse whisperer.” With love for her many animals she soon went to Vet Tech School and started a mobile petting zoo. She took joy in sharing her knowledge of the animals and the Bible verses that went with them. She later retired to Callahan next to her sister. She enjoyed spending time with all her family, her church and her barn full of animals for the remainder of her life.

Michelle is survived by her husband Mike Losco; her son Jason (Katie) Losco; grandchildren Colter Losco, Ethan Losco, Zachary Losco, Mark Losco and Amber Losco; her sister Mary (Harry) Stratton; and many nieces and nephews. She will be greatly missed by all.

A viewing was held Monday, September 24 in the Nassau Funeral Home Chapel. The funeral service was held Tuesday, September 25 at Live Oak Baptist Church with Pastor Steve Wolgamott officiating. Interment followed in the Keystone Memorial Garden Cemetery.
