

MARY CARROLL GEOGHAGAN

Mary Etta Carroll Geoghagan, 81, of Folkston, Georgia, passed away September 20 after an extended illness, surrounded by her family. Mary was born in Middleburg and raised in Callahan. She had lived in Folkston for the last 40 years.

Mary's greatest passion in life was caring for and spending time with daughters, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. When she spent any time with her many babies, she would become a child herself. She was extremely special in her ability to connect with each of them and find joy in the things they enjoyed. From playing chase, tossing a ball or even sitting down and playing a video game, she was all-in and they loved it. She is so loved by all her family and friends. She also loved being outside, whether it was pulling weeds or planting flowers. She helped raise each and every child of three generations.

She was preceded in death by her parents H.S. and Pauline Nettles Carroll; three brothers M.G., Archie and Paul Carroll; three sisters-in-law Marie, Christine and Bonnie Carroll; one son-in-law William David Rowe; and one granddaughter Melissa Kay Harris.

She is survived by three daughters Mary (Betty) Nazworth, Hazel (John) Harris and Barbara Rowe; three grandsons Anthony Corbitt (Shauna) Nazworth, Herman (Dorene) Nazworth and Robbie (Leann) Harris; seven great-grandchildren; and two brothers Clifford Carroll and Herman (Lucien) Carroll.

A viewing was held prior to the memorial service Sunday, September 23 in the Nassau Funeral Home Chapel. Interment followed in the Jones Cemetery.
