

RUTH HART

Ruth Ann Hart, 74, passed away Thursday, November 8. She was born in Atlantic City, New Jersey on April 22, 1944 to Margaret and Henry Zimmerman.

Professionally, Ruth was a Computer Specialist for the FAA starting in Atlantic City with the majority of her career working in Hilliard. She retired after 43 years of service in 2011.

Ruth was raised on the Atlantic City Boardwalk. She spent countless days at the beach with her friends, attended Pleasantville High School and being a teenager of the 1950's and 1960's, experienced the birth of Rock N' Roll and even danced on Dick Clark's America Bandstand. Her interest in music and theatre led her to attending numerous concerts and flying off to Broadway over the years.

Ruth is preceded in death by her parents Margaret and Henry Zimmerman; and a sister Dorothy McGehean.

She is survived by her two daughters Dana (Jack) Crist of Blackfoot, Idaho and Kris (Aaron) Light of Jacksonville; two grandchildren; one great-grandchild; two nephews; and countless family and friends throughout the U.S.

The family will receive friends Friday, November 16 from 2-4 p.m. and 6-8 p.m. at 3755 Catherine Street, Hilliard. A memorial service will be held Saturday, November 17 at 11 a.m. at Hardage-Giddens Funeral Home in Mandarin, 11801 San Jose Boulevard, Jacksonville.

The family welcomes flowers or memorial donations to the American Diabetes Association.
