

KEIKO LOU KIKUTA HILL

On November 17, a longtime resident of Hilliard, Keiko Lou Kikuta Hill, 87, passed away peacefully at her home. She was born in Miyagi Ken, Japan on September 13, 1931. She married the love of her life, William Tolbert Hill on June 27, 1955 in Tokyo, Japan during the WWII era, while he was serving his country in the US Navy. She moved to the United States on October 16, 1959 where she became a US Citizen. They lived in several different states and countries following his Army and Navy careers and during that time she worked in a restaurant at a sous chef. They lived in many different states before settling down in Hilliard. After her husband's retirement she starting selling antiques at the Pecan Park flea market while her husband maintained a thriving honey business.

She is preceded in death by her husband, William Tolbert Hill; and a host of family and friends. She is survived by a host of family and friends in Japan as well as the United States.

Condolences may be expressed at www.nassaufh.com.

Arrangements by Nassau Funeral Home, Callahan, 904-879-1770.