

EDDIE BERRY ROWE

Eddie Berry Rowe, 80, of Hilliard, went home to be with the Lord on December 24. He was born on August 4, 1938, in Hilliard, to William and Winnie Rowe. Eddie was an active member of New Life Baptist Church in St. George, Georgia; Masonic Lodge #32; Shriners Club; Southeast Hilliard Hunting Club; and was well known for his countless volunteer hours as cook for numerous benefits. He and his buddy Bobby were affectionately known as “The Goat Men” by his friends and family.

He is survived by his loving wife of 56 years, Dottie Rowe; daughter Kim Rowe; sisters Estelle (Al) Manning and Shirlene (Ron) Ridenour; his best friends Bobby and Alexis Thaggard; his dog Maggie; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents and multiple siblings.

A viewing was held prior to the funeral service Sunday, December 30 at New Life Baptist Church in St. George with Pastor James Conner officiating. Interment followed in Mill Creek Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Shon Libby, Grady Libby, Kevin Johnson, Robert Jones, David Jones and Johnny Rowe.
