

EDITH M. POPPELL

Edith M. (Ryals) Poppell, 86, went home to be with the Lord Friday, December 14 in Midfield, Alabama. She was born March 16, 1932 in Woodbine, Georgia to Leonard and Viola Ryals. She lived in Townsend and Brunswick, Georgia most of her life. She loved making quilts with her mom, working in the church teaching Sunday school, children's church and cooking. She was a member of Eulonia Church of God of Prophecy. She ran Vick's and the Village Pantry in McIntosh, Georgia, JJ's Truck Stop, Fork's Restaurant and Granny and Andy's in Brunswick.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband of 48 years, Edward Poppell; brothers JL, Harlis and Eddie Ryals; son-in-law Bob Lazzara; and granddaughter Pamela Hudson.

Survivors include her daughters Dale Lazzara, Buffy (Vincent) Halfacre and Karen (Robert) Butler; grandchildren Jennifer Johnson, Rhonda Hudson (David) Lane, Jonathan Bristol, Joshua (Ashley) Landers and Robbie Way; great-grandchildren Izaiah Andrews, Imani Johnson, Dalton, Dylan and Jason Rapoza, Kristina Lane, DJ (Kelsey) Lane; brothers Mason, Carlis, Mickey and Kenny Ryals.

Friends and family members may attend the Celebration of Life Service, officiated by Danny Stilwell and Jamie Rivera, Sunday, January 13 at 2 p.m. at Townsend Church of God, Townsend, Georgia.

The family invites donations in Edith's name to a Charity or Church of your choosing.

A. Banks Crematory is in charge of the cremation.