

MICHAEL ALAN SAIN

Michael Alan Sain, 53, of Hilliard, joined his Savior on Christmas Day, December 25. Michael was a member of the First Baptist Church of Callahan. He was born in Jacksonville on May 1, 1965 to Donnie L. Sain and Antionette Ruby Sain (deceased). Michael proudly served his country as a Marine Lance Corporal completing boot camp at Parris Island. He received certification as an explosives driver and was stationed overseas in Okinawa, the Philippines, Korea and Japan. Michael truly admired all military veterans and participated as the VFW Post Commander from 2011-2014 and was a charter member of the American Legion Post 401. After leaving the service, Michael worked in various positions in the trucking business, construction and as an equipment operator.

Michael is survived by his father Donnie L. (Janice) Sain; his sister Melissa (Andrew) Bibbs; stepbrother Cliff (Sabine) Riddle; his grandmother Edna Sain; his Aunt Jeanette West; his Uncle Roger (Peggy) Sain. Michael loved his many cousins, nephews and nieces on both sides of the family and had many, many, cherished friends. He was preceded in death by his grandfather Don D. Sain; and Uncle Richard West.

The family received friends prior to the funeral service held December 31 in the Chapel of Callahan Funeral Home with Pastor Lynn Hyatt officiating.

Pallbearers were Raymond Pace, Kevin Roth, Rusty Lee, Kevin Sherwood, Harry Seiler and Arden Battle. Honorary Pallbearers were Richard Holoka and Glenn Carter.

Burial followed with full military honors at the Jacksonville National Cemetery.

Condolences may be expressed at www.callahanfh.com.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to "Boots On The Ground."

Following the service, VFW Post #10095 in Hilliard held a reception in Michael's honor.
