

A.J. DELASSUS, JR.

A.J. Delassus, Jr., 28, of Little Rock, Arkansas, passed away Wednesday, January 8, 2020. He was born Edward Anthony Delassus, Jr. on September 7, 1991 in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, to Edward Delassus, Sr. and Mary Lou Delassus. A.J. was raised and received his early education in Star City, Arkansas. He also attended West Nassau High School and played JV football. He was nicknamed Big Hungry! He later graduated from Star City High School in 2010.

He worked for Time Striping in Little Rock. He was a fun-loving person who had a lot of friends who also loved the outdoors and will never be forgotten. He loved four-wheeler riding, fishing, hunting and just watching the sunrise and sunsets. A.J. enjoyed playing with his kids, going to car races and hanging out with friends. He was preceded in death by his brother James Delassus; and grandfathers Harold R. Delassus, Sr.; and Sidney Jackson, Jr.

Survivors include his wife, Ashley Michelle Stokes Delassus, whom he married July 24, 2015; two sons James Charles Delassus and Drake Hoss Delassus; daughter Cerenydi Grayce Delassus; mother Mary Delassus; father Edward (Inelle) Delassus, Sr.; two sisters Vanessa Delassus and Ashley White; five brothers Damon, Reed, Roy, William and Chris Delassus; and grandmothers Faye Delassus and Betty Jackson.

Funeral services were held January 15 at Robinson and Fuller White Hall Funeral Chapel with Brother Dan Borland officiating. Burial followed in Bayou Meto Cemetery.