

AID “TURNER” HADDOCK, JR.

Aid “Turner” Haddock, Jr., 92, of Hilliard, passed away September 26, 2021 at his home. He was born in Kings Ferry, to the late Aid Turner Haddock and Anna Braddock Haddock. After honorably serving his country in the US Army, Mr. Haddock worked for many years in sales of electrical equipment before retiring. Soon after, he started his own business, Haddock Sales, which marketed automotive additives.

Mr. Haddock enjoyed hunting when he was younger. He was an avid golfer and was so good at it, he almost turned professional. He had a good sense of humor and loved to aggravate his grandchildren with nicknames he would make up, even going so far as to name his cows after them. He was a huge UF fan and up until recently, would always host large Florida/Georgia game parties at his home. Mr. Haddock was a member of Ephesus Baptist Church in Hilliard for most of his life and was a Mason. He is preceded in death by his late wife Patricia Haddock; his parents; and several brothers and sisters.

He leaves behind his wife, Sandra Drury of Hilliard; daughter Tracey (Chester) Parrott of Douglas, Georgia; step-daughter Treva Browning of Atlanta, Georgia; sisters Clara Jean Arnett of Yulee and Hazel Groover of Kingsland; grandson Joshua Parrott; granddaughters Summer (Chris) Brigmond, Lisa (Kevin) Spivey, all of Ambrose, Georgia; great-grandchildren Jacob, Brittney, Raelyn, Brantley, Walker and Stella; and four great-great-grandchildren.

His family received friends Tuesday, September 28 at his home, 48907 Haddock Drive, Hilliard. The funeral service was held Wednesday, September 29 at Ephesus Baptist Church in Hilliard. Burial followed in Haddock Cemetery, Hilliard.
