

~~WESTSIDE JOURNAL

---

ALAYSHIA CARTIANA POWE

Alayshia Cartiana Powe, 17, left this earth to soar with the angels in Heaven and rest at the feet of our Lord on Friday July 5, 2019. Alayshia was born to Letitia Strickland-Powe and Carlos Powe May 10, 2002 in Jacksonville. She was an upcoming senior at Ed White High School Class of 2020 in Jacksonville. Alayshia loved so many and was loved by so many more. "Layshia" had a passion for fashion and enjoyed doing what most 17-year-old girls do: getting her hair, nails and make-up done and buying shoes (Jordan's to be exact). She had energy that with even just one encounter with her, you would remember her for life. If you knew her well or barely at all, she always left you thinking. Whether it was about how absolutely beautiful or ridiculously funny, she was, she left her mark. She will continue to stay with us all through memories and the laughs she forced us all to endure whether we were in the mood for it or not.

"Layshia" loved her family deeply and her memories will be cherished by her adoring parents Letitia Strickland-Powe (Stephen Newsome) and Carlos Powe (Michelle Nettles); siblings Shacara Powe, Amirah Lamb, Amir Lamb, Jordyn Powe, Harlynn Powe, Periyuan Newsome and Kianna Newsome; grandparents Oliver and Willeva Strickland, Sr., Eddie and Theresa Walker, Annie Mae Powe and Lynn Caldwell; god-mother Abbalina Allen; very special cousin Octavia (Shan) Sansanong; special friend Elijah Henderson; best friend Tyana Daniels; and a host of other relatives and friends.

The family will receive friends Friday, July 12 from 5-7 p.m. at Sarah L. Carter's Funeral Home North Side Chapel, 6665 Kings Road, Jacksonville.

The Celebration of Life Service will be held Saturday, July 13 at 12 noon at Callahan First Baptist Church, 45090 Green Ave. Burial will follow at the Callahan Community Cemetery.