

ALISA JOY HOFFMANN LINN

Alisa Joy Hoffmann Linn went to heaven July 4, 2019. Alisa was born in Iron River, Michigan on February 20, 1964 and then raised in Delavan, Wisconsin. On June 29, 1985, she married Gary R. Linn of Front Royal, Virginia.

Alisa graduated Valedictorian from Delavan-Darien High School in Delavan, Wisconsin as well as Valedictorian from Southeastern University in Lakeland, Florida, completing a 4-year bachelor's degree in only 3 years. She was a very talented writer and authored for Gospel Publishing House, Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada, and Charisma Life. Additionally, she personally created resources that have equipped churches, pastors and missionaries in over 40 countries. She was a conference speaker/trainer for state, regional, national and international events. Alisa co-pastored with her husband at churches ranging in size from 50 to 3,000. Her hobbies were gardening, interior decorating and gourmet cooking.

She is survived by her husband Gary; her parents Rodger and Betty Hoffmann of Keystone Heights; her brother Stephen (Sharon) Hoffmann of Oswego, IL; a nephew Andrew Hoffmann; plus a large extended family.

A memorial service will be held Sunday, July 14 at 3 p.m. at Lighthouse Prayer Center, 43694 Ratliff Road, Callahan.

In lieu of flowers, her family and church have requested that you prayerfully consider honoring Alisa's love for Christ through a donation to either Lighthouse Prayer Center or to her global ministry, Children's Ministry Today. Your loving gift can be sent to the church address above.
