

AUNITA JENKINS WILSON

Aunita Lucinda Jenkins Wilson (Nita Baby, NeetNeet, Nete the Pete, MyNete), 67, went home to be with the Lord, Friday, June 24, 2022. Aunita was born to the late Oscar Simon and Evelyn Isabelle Jenkins in Fernandina Beach. Soon after her birth, the family relocated to New York City, where she spent her childhood and adult years. Over the last 10 years, she relocated to Callahan to care for her mom.

Aunita attended Thomas Jefferson High School in Brooklyn, NY and Florida Agricultural & Mechanical University (FAMU) where she received her Bachelors of Science Degree in Home Economics. In October 1983, she married Earle W. Wilson and they had three sons, Earle Jerreau, Marlon Tobias and Isaiah Jahleel. While in New York, she was employed by the Newburgh Public School Systems as a Home Economics Teacher where she retired.

Aunita was a dedicated member at Springfield Baptist Church in Beacon, NY. Upon relocating to Callahan, she attended Greater Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church and was the VBS Arts & Crafts instructor. Aunita enjoyed holiday cooking, baking, decorating and home shopping for gifts and accessories. She absolutely loved arts & crafts, sewing for herself, family and the community. Every holiday, she personally designed gifts and packaged them with love. Aunita enjoyed oldies but goodies and dancing to disco music. She was a devoted wife, mother, sister, grandmother, auntie, cousin and best friend to many.
