

BETTY SUSAN HUTTO

Betty Susan (Sue) Hutto, 86, peacefully went to be with the Lord on December 27, 2019. She was born on November 16, 1933 in Zephyr Hills, Florida to the late Elvery and Ruby Lane as the 10th of 13 children. She was preceded in death by her husband, Grady, after 27 years of marriage.

Sue was widowed at a relatively young age and immediately went to work to support the children still living at home. She opened a daycare in her home called Nanny's Little People in Callahan. She provided a loving, Christian environment to dozens of children over the 20+ years she operated the daycare. Those children are all grown now with children of their own, but they still love and appreciate her. Many people still lovingly refer to Sue as "Nanny."

Sue was a true friend who will always be remembered for her quick wit and sense of humor. She was a very thoughtful and generous person who served as a caregiver for many of her siblings who predeceased her. Sue found great joy in her close-knit extended family, church and friends.

Sue was a member of Springfield Church of God from her childhood until it's closing in 2004 at which time she joined Atlantic Beach Assembly of God as a faithful and devoted member. She served as the president of the Ladies' Willing Worker Band (LWWB) at Springfield for many years and also served with her husband, Grady, leading the Junior High Sunday School Department at Springfield. It was Sue's deep and abiding faith that supported her throughout her life and gave her peace in her final days. In her last months she received great comfort listening and singing to gospel music with songs such as "It Is Well With My Soul" and "I'd Rather Have Jesus."

She is survived by her brother Samuel "Sonny" (Marilyn) Lane; her children Christy (Marty) Amos, Danny (Terri) Hutto, Tammy Schub and Donnie (Rhonda) Hutto; her grandchildren Jamie Johnson, Stacey Pipkin, Marty Amos, Amy Dietzer, Amanda Woodard, Joseph Schub, Gregory Hutto and Garrett Hutto; 22 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews and countless friends and loved ones.

In addition to her grandsons, her pallbearers were her nephew, Wayne Carter and beloved friend Randal Rodriguez.

The family will receive friends Thursday, January 2 from 6-8 p.m. at Atlantic Beach Assembly of God, 680 Mayport Road, Atlantic Beach. The funeral service will be held Friday, January 3, 2020 at 11 a.m. at Atlantic Beach Assembly of God with Reverend Donnie Hutto officiating. The burial will follow Jacksonville Memorial Gardens in Orange Park.
