

CAROLYN JEANETTE SISSON

Carolyn Jeanette Sisson, 77, was reunited with her husband Gene Sisson and grandson Baylee Sisson on March 11. She was born December 13, 1941 to Macon and Annie Bell Carnley in Samson, Alabama.

She was known for her cakes and homemade jellies. She was a member of the Callahan Eastern Star. Her greatest joys were her family, children and her grandchildren. She was a strong woman who touched many lives. She had a kind heart and a kind soul and will be missed by many. Our lives have been enriched by having her in them.

Known to many as Nanny or Aunt Net is survived by her daughter Patti (Joe) Benson of Hilliard; and her son Shawn (Michelle) Sisson; grandsons Shane (Rachael) Beasley and Tristin Sisson; and granddaughters Trinity Sisson and Brooke Sisson; great-grandchildren Raely, Haven and Thaddeus Beasley; Tuesday night daughters Peggy (Ken) Seeley and Jeannie (Steve) Bozeman; sisters Dorothy (Leonard) Gilley, Jackie (Bobby) King and Sue (Roger) Poff; brothers Bill (Lisa) Carnley, all of Haines City and Jerry (Gail) Carnley of Hamlet, North Carolina; several nieces and nephews; and of course her favorite Diane Gilley; and Sender the yard pig.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 55 years, Gene Sisson; grandson Baylee Sisson; her parents Macon and Annie Bell Carnley; and in-laws Chester and Dot Sisson.

A visitation was held Saturday, March 16 in the Nassau Funeral Home Chapel from 6-8 p.m. A funeral service was held Sunday, March 17 at First Baptist Church of Callahan with Pastor Lynn Hyatt officiating. Interment followed in Oakwood Cemetery.
