

CECIL ROBERT HAGAN, SR.

Mr. Cecil Robert Hagan, Sr., 83, of Glen St. Mary, passed away Monday, April 8, at Community Hospice of St. Vincent's Riverside surrounded by his loving family.

Mr. Hagan was born in Callahan, on May 9, 1935 to the late Mr. Gervin and Dora Lee (Braddock) Hagan. He grew up in Callahan and later moved to Baker County, where he would spend nearly 55 years. Cecil was known by all as a caring and giving man, always willing to lend a helpful hand to anyone in need. He could always be found with his trademark smile on his face and ready to hug your neck. Mr. Cecil never met a stranger. In his free time, Mr. Cecil enjoyed the outdoors, gardening and farming in particular. He loved spending time with his friends and family, especially his grandchildren.

He owned "Hagan Express Transportation" for over 30 years. He also was known to mow anyone's yard who either needed the extra help or was unable to do so themselves. He attended Christian Fellowship Temple in Macclenny and was a member for over 17 years. Mr. Cecil will ultimately be remembered by anyone who knew him as a loving, caring man who had a pure soul.

In addition to his parents; his is preceded in death by his wife of 56 years, Mrs. Donna Faye Hagan.

He leaves behind to cherish memories, his wife Ms. Judy Hagan of Glen St. Mary; son Cecil "Bob" Robert (Kathy) Hagan, Jr. of Glen St. Mary; grandchildren Krista (Josh) Hagens, Jessica (Brad) Rhoden and BJ Hagan, all of Glen St. Mary; four great-grandchildren; his brother Don (Ann) Hagan of Callahan; his sister June Miller of Texas; as well as a multitude of other family members and friends who loved Cecil like family.

The family will receive friends on Thursday, April 11 from 5-7 p.m. at Christian Fellowship Temple, Macclenny.

The funeral service for Mr. Hagan will be held Friday, April 12 at 11 a.m. at Christian Fellowship Temple with Pastors David and Timmy Thomas officiating. Mr. Cecil will be laid to rest at Oak Grove Cemetery, Macclenny.

Arrangements are under the care and direction of Forbes Funeral Home, Macclenny, 904-259-4600.
