

CHARLOTTE E. MUSSLEWHITE

Charlotte Elisabeth Musslewhite, 91, crossed into Gloryland at 3:00 a.m. on July 30, 2020. She was born to Richard and Mathilde Kunkel on April 30, 1929 in Fuessen, Germany. Mrs. Charlotte is preceded in death by her parents; her husband Eugene in 2004; and grandson Joshua Loveland in 2019.

Charlotte came to the United States in 1955 with her husband Eugene, gained citizenship, raised her family and started her career retiring from S.G.E. as an accountant assistant. She enjoyed the game of golf, playing in her younger years and watching the PGA Tours. She also loved watching football on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. She loved the Lord, was active in her Sunday school class and attended and helped with the senior events at River Road Baptist Church. One of her biggest joys was to see her family be close and share love for one another. No matter the distance between Florida and Germany, she always made it work. Taking many trips overseas to visit along with enjoying the time family would travel to visit her. She was wonderful in all categories and will be dearly missed.

She leaves behind two daughters Gerdi (Connie) Ackermann of Ismaning, Germany and Susan (Don) Kluge of Jacksonville; and a son Ricky (Sheryl) Musslewhite of Callahan; grandchildren Brian Kluge and family, Mark Kluge and family, Andrea Hermann and family, Christopher Ackermann and family, Amelie Ackermann, Jeremy (Alison) and family.

The family received friends Monday, August 3 at Nassau Funeral Home. A celebration of Charlotte's life was held Tuesday, August 4 at River Road Baptist Church with Pastor Hal McIntosh, Pastor James Conner and Pastor Benji Loyd officiating. Interment followed at River Road Baptist Church Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions made in her honor to the R. Neil Hampton Scholarship Fund at River Road Baptist Church.
