

DAVID JOSEPH KICK

David Joseph Kick, 51, of Callahan, went home to be with the Lord on February 6. He was born on July 12, 1967 in Waukegan, Illinois to Patrick Kick and Elizabeth Carter Stoeckel. David had a passion for car mechanics; anyone who knew him most likely received his help at one time or another. He had a gift as a mechanic and could fix most anything, even in his sleep. He loved fishing, going to the beach and not to mention, as any country boy, he loved going mudding on his four wheelers. Anything outdoors or in the country was his passion. David was affectionately known as a “Mama’s Boy” he loved his Mama dearly! He was a hardworking man that would do anything to help anyone that he could.

David is survived by his wife Theresa Kick; daughters Ashley Little and Caitlin (Matthew) Rooker; son Zachary Williams; his mother and step-father Elizabeth and Frank Stoeckel; his father Patrick Kick; sisters Tina Love, Michelle (J.R.) Vasquez and Judy (John) Carter; mother-in-law Sharon Suddeath; seven grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his brother Michael Troy Kick; his grandfather John Carter; and his grandmother Yvonne Kick.

The family received friends prior to the funeral service held Wednesday, February 13 in the Nassau Funeral Home Chapel with Pastor Steve Thomas officiating. Interment followed in Jones Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Zac, David, Matt, Buddy, Jimmy, Ray Terrell and Scott Love.

Condolences may be expressed at www.nassaufh.com.

Arrangements under the direction of Nassau Funeral Home, Callahan, 904-879-1770.