

DEANNA LORRIS LANE

DeAnna Lorris Lane, 78, of Callahan, peacefully left this earth to be with her beloved David on Wednesday April 17, 2019. She was happy and laughing until the very end. She knew no strangers. She proudly professed her love for her Savior in Christ and spread His word to all she came into contact with. She was utterly devoted to her husband of 30 years, David M. Lane, whom she was separated from just six short months ago. Today, they walk together in the glory of our Father.

She was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, community volunteer, devoted friend and confidant who had recently reunited with her only daughter and granddaughter, she was joyfully anticipating the arrival of her first great-grandchild, Donovan.

Born in Hinton, West Virginia, she left us to join her husband David; her parents Walter W. and Effie V. (Shrewsberry) Jones; brothers twin Leander 'Bud' Jones, Fred Jones, Bill Jones, Louis Jones and Ben Jones; sisters Nellie Marie Jones, Betty Hammond and Barbara Jones.

Left to mourn her passing are sisters Ola Jean McHugh and Anita Thomas; daughter Marsha Lambert; granddaughter Ashleigh Lambert; step-children Ernest Lane and Janet Martin; and numerous step-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends.

Following a private memorial service, her ashes will be scattered in West Virginia along with those of her beloved husband.
