

DURELL R. CREWS

Mr. Durell R. 'Bob' Crews, 77, of Bryceville, passed away Thursday, April 4. A lifelong resident of Nassau County, Mr. Crews was born to the late Alan R. and Wilma Smith Crews. He was a devout Christian and a charter member of Liberty Baptist Church in Callahan. Mr. Crews was in the logging business from a young age and owned D. R. Crews and Son Logging for over 40 years. An avid golfer, he was said to have "put down the logs and picked up a club" upon retiring from the logging business. Mr. Crews enjoyed golfing with friends at Bent Creek Golf Course in Jacksonville, watching classic western movies, and woodworking, especially crafting picture frames. He will be remembered as a giving man and a devoted husband, father and grandfather.

He is survived by his wife of 56 years, Pat Crews; sons Robert (Karen) Crews of Callahan and Ricky (Gloria) Crews of Bryceville; daughter Robin (Kevin) Hampton of Yulee; 12 grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; a brother Jr. (Bea) Crews of Bryceville; and sisters Myrte Caldwell of Bryceville, Brenda Stalvey and Caron Sanders, both of Statenville, Georgia.

Funeral services were held Monday, April 8 in the chapel of Prestwood Funeral Home with Reverend Adam Pierce officiating. Burial followed at Riverside Memorial Park in Jacksonville. The family received friends Sunday, April 7 at the funeral home.

Please sign the online guestbook at www.prestwoodfuneralhome.com.

Arrangements entrusted to Prestwood Funeral Home, Baldwin.