

EDNA IRENE SAIN

Edna Irene Howell Sain, 96, of Callahan, joined her Savior on Friday, August 20, 2021, due to complications from Covid. She was born in Worcester, England August 7, 1925. Don D. Sain was an American Soldier during World War II when they met, fell in love, and married in England. At war's end Edna and baby Donnie sailed to America to be reunited with Don in Moultrie, Georgia. She was so proud when she received her U.S. Citizenship on March 24, 2004. It was truly a special day for her. Mom was a member of Garden City Methodist Church and for many years attended the First Baptist Church of Gray Gables. She was preceded in death by her husband, Don Sain; and grandson Michael Sain.

Mom was always cheerful and loved everyone. She was devoted to her family, a faithful prayer warrior and loved reading scriptures. She loved working in her yard and baking pies and fruitcakes. She also was a life member of the West Nassau Historical Society. The family wishes to thank family and friends for their visits, calls, prayers, cards and gifts of food for the caregivers.

She is survived by her sister Joyce Howell Baldwin of Worcester, England; her children Donnie (Janice) Sain of Callahan, Jeanette West (Richard, deceased) of Jacksonville and Roger (Peggy) Sain of Callahan; her grandchildren Brian (Sandy) West, Cliff (Sabine) Riddle, Sharon (Kelvin) Barbour, Kenny (Crystal) West, Roger Sain, Jr. (fiancé Missy Brown), MacKenzie Melvin and Melissa (Andrew) Bibbs; and she was blessed with eight great-grandchildren.

A graveside service was held Tuesday, August 24 at Jones Cemetery with Gray Gables Pastor Cody Page and Associate Pastor/ Music Minister Justin Hartzell officiating.

Flowers were provided by the family, however any charitable donations may be made to: The Cup Ministry, First Baptist Church of Gray Gables; Community Hospice, 4266 Sunbeam Rd., Jacksonville, FL, 32257; or Trinity Rescue Mission, 622 Union St., Jacksonville, Florida 32202.
