

FRANCES GALBREATH

Mrs. Frances Galbreath, 88, of the Sharpespur Community, passed away Friday, April 26, 2019 in Meadows Health in Vidalia, Georgia after a brief illness. She was a native of Montgomery County, and lived most of her life in Sharpespur in Montgomery County. She worked with Globe Manufacturing for many years. She was a 1947 graduate of Vidalia High School and was a member of the New Corinth Baptist Church. She was preceded in death by her husband Ray Galbreath; parents Ed “Big Boy” Morris and Reeta Minton Morris; one sister Mavis Grinstead Galbreath; and a son-in-law William Acie Edenfield, Jr.

Mrs. Galbreath is survived by six children Gloria Galbreath (Chris) Clackum of Charlotte, North Carolina, Patty Galbreath (Buddy) Coleman of the Center Community, Claudia Galbreath Edenfield of Jesup, Craig (Jacqui) Galbreath of Hilliard, Bill (JoAnn) Galbreath, and Gary (Becky) Galbreath, all of Sharpespur; one sister Jeanie Morris (Danny) Dukes; two brothers Joseph Morris and John (Cindy) Morris; 12 grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral service was held Sunday, April 28 in the chapel of Ronald V. Hall Funeral Home with Rev. Emory Fennell and Reverend Bob Corley officiating. Burial followed in the Galbreath Cemetery. The family received friends at the funeral home Saturday, April 27.

Those desiring, may make memorial contributions to the New Corinth Baptist Church, 5219 Lyons-Center Road, Vidalia GA 30474.