

GINA FAYE MCGEE

Gina Faye McGee, 55, of Jacksonville, passed away Friday, March 18, 2022 at her home. Although she was born in Jacksonville, Gina was raised in the Callahan area and lived most of her life in Nassau County. She was born on December 16, 1966. She graduated from West Nassau High School in 1984.

She worked as a receptionist at the Spa at the Omni Resort on Amelia Island. Gina was a true lover of the beach and spending time on or around the water. No matter how much time she spent on and around the water, Gina's passion was for her family. Whether she was cooking for them, playing with her grandson, Ryan, or just spending time with them, her family was the priority in her life. Gina was predeceased by her brother Nathaniel Mabry, IV.

She leaves behind her children, Mabry Burch and son-in-law Josh of Callahan and her son James McGee of Lexington, North Carolina; a grandson Ryan Burch; her parents Oliver Mabry, III of Jacksonville and Lynn Sikes of Callahan; her brothers Sean (Dessica) Mabry of Jacksonville and Matthew Yates of Callahan; a sister-in-law Jennifer (Lin) Rhoden of Jacksonville; and a special aunt, Kaye Baker.

She loved the Lord and was a longtime member of Callahan First Baptist Church where a celebration of her life was held Tuesday, March 22. The family received friends prior to the service.
