After his years of service came to an end, Henry and Frances proudly built a wonderful life together, full of love, laughter, and joy. He loved family gatherings and was the most generous man, with both his time and knowledge. Henry loved being outdoors. He enjoyed hunting, fishing and gardening and he took great pride in growing food for his family. Henry loved singing in the church choir, old western movies, dogs and sharing stories about his baseball and Army days. He will be remembered by those who loved him as a man who would go above and beyond for his family. Henry held strong to his faith and found great comfort being surrounded and cared for by those he held dear to his heart. He is preceded in death by his loving spouse, Frances.

Henry is survived by his devoted son, David, as well as many other loved ones.

The tribute above was prepared by Henry's loving granddaughters, who will miss him very much.
