

IAN DAVID FINCHUM

Mr. Ian David Finchum, 42, of Callahan, passed away Wednesday, January 15, 2020. A lifelong resident of Callahan, he was a 1996 graduate of Baldwin High School. Ian was a caring, family-oriented man with a fantastic sense of humor. He loved people and never met a stranger. Ian enjoyed singing and entertaining at the Ramona Flea Market in Jacksonville, where he was well known for selling boiled peanuts at his family's peanut stand. He loved attending the Strawberry Festival every year in Plant City. Some of his favorite things were the Florida Gators, shopping at the Orange Park Mall, enjoying meals with family, and tending the animals on the family farm.

He is survived by his son Corbin Finchum of Greer, South Carolina; mother and stepfather Lynda and Donnie Starling of Callahan; father and stepmother John and Malinda Finchum, Jr. of Plant City; sisters Amy (Nick) Shepherd of Middleburg and Ashley (James) Hobbs, Jr. of Callahan; nephew Jayden Watson; nieces Gracie and Sophie Hobbs; maternal grandmother Senobia Jones; and numerous cousins and a multitude of friends. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather Thomas Jones; and paternal grandparents John and Nancy Finchum, Sr.

A celebration of Ian's life was held Saturday, January 18 at Otis Road Church of God, Jacksonville with Pastor Stephen Thomas officiating. Burial followed at Sellers Cemetery, Jacksonville. The family received friends prior to the celebration.

Arrangements by Warren Funeral Services of Baldwin.

Please sign the online guestbook and leave condolences at www.warrenfuneralservices.com.