

JAMES DARYL WHITE

James 'Daryl' White, 66, passed away September 26, 2023 at his home with his beloved and faithful dog 'Phat Gerl' by his side. Daryl, as he was known to everyone, was born September 24, 1957 in Gumberry, North Carolina and spent his elementary school years in Seaboard, North Carolina. In 1970, he moved to Hilliard with his family, where he attended Hilliard Middle-Senior High School. He later transferred to West Nassau High School where he graduated in the Class of 1975.

Daryl resided in Hilliard and various areas of the state but made his final home in Jacksonville. He lived his last few years battling COPD and heart disease. Daryl was preceded in death by his loving parents James and Vivian White; sister Brenda Sue White Burgess; and two brothers-in-law Donnie Burgess and Stan Baughan.

He is survived by his sisters Wendy White Baughan, Carol (Frank) Novak, Denise (Dean) Richards and Cathy (Dean) Thompson; and many extended family and friends.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.
