

JO ANN HARGRAVES

Jo Ann Hargraves, 74, of Callahan, passed away peacefully March 18, 2022. She was born in Pell City, Alabama on March 19, 1947. Jo grew up in Brooksville, Florida before living most of her life in Canton, Georgia. She moved to Callahan to be closer to her son and his family in 2017.

Jo started a career in the banking industry in Atlanta, during the mid-1980's as a bank teller and worked her way through the ranks to become Assistant Vice President Regional Operations Manager before retiring in 2012. Jo is reunited again with her late husband whom she lost to Leukemia in 1996.

Jo leaves behind her son Aaron Hargraves and his family; a grandchild; brother Billy Hutcheson; and two sisters Janey Hardin and Theresa Edmondson of Brooksville; and several nieces and nephews.