

JOHN NATHAN BROWN

John Nathan Brown, 97, of Hilliard, went to be with the Lord August 19, 2024. He served his country as a proud US Marine during WWII. He worked for the railroad for more than 30 years before his retirement. He loved spending time with his family, but most of all his grandchildren.

He is survived by his children Teresa Brown (Fred) Wulf, Linda Brown (James) Vincelli, Vicki Brown (Charles) Cornett and David Nathan Brown; grandchildren Tania K. Smith, Leo N. (Ty) Dykes, Rebecca A. Merritt, Adrianne M. Stahler, Perry W. Poe and Stephen M. Chancey, 12 great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren.

A private family graveside service will be held at the Jacksonville National Cemetery.
