

JUST MY OPINION

Roger R. West

Let's start with a word from the leader of the free world, President Joe Biden. His quote from a town hall meeting last week, "And the question is whether or not we should be in a position where you are...why can't the...the...the experts say, We know that this virus is, in fact...it's going to be..."...or, excuse me... "We know why all the drugs approved are not temporarily approved, but permanently approved. That's underway, too. I expect that to occur quickly."

All I can say is wow! Doesn't that just make you feel all fuzzy inside knowing this man is supposed to be the leader of our country, the man that has the ability to push the red button! Doesn't it make you sleep soundly at night knowing Joe is in charge of your security? People, we are in deep trouble as a country.

The Democrats are in total panic mode, not only are they dealing with a mentally ill President, just last week a new poll was released showing the Cackling Pantsuit (VP Kamala Harris) is the least popular Vice President in the last 50 years. She was unable to conceal her total ignorance behind her cackling. Have you noticed they have kept her subdued lately? There is a definite reason for that. All the while, there are increasing members of Congress on both sides of the aisle that are turning against Rep. Nancy Pelosi or perhaps better known as the "Wicked Witch from the west." Her shenanigans concerning the January 6 commission was a total circus. It was scripted and poorly performed. Elected members of congress and police officer broke down and cried during the hearings, very poor acting on their part and very embarrassing for America.

Yet with everything going awry, the Democrats are not wavering from their march toward socialism. Have you wondered why they are so concerned about the Chinese virus, yet they still have not closed the southern border where thousands of infected illegals are entering our country daily? They are not even testing the illegals for COVID any longer, so sad for us!

As republican.anna says, "Accepting Socialism is basically admitting you can't compete in the real world." You're saying, "I'm willing to give up my liberty, my religion and my dreams as long as the state will take care of me." Accepting Socialism is accepting failure. It's the complete opposite of America."

Candace Owens (I just love her) said, "Can anybody point me to that one time in history where the side that was demanding censorship, segregation, propaganda, radical education, papers to move freely in society, plus government forces going door to door to demand compliance were the good guys?"

As Ronald Reagan once said, "All of us need to be reminded that the Federal Government did not create the States; the States created the Federal Government." I agree.

Of course, as always...that's just my opinion!
