

JUST MY OPINION

Roger R. West

What a wonderful week America experienced last week! The Supreme Court ruled against the infringement of the 2nd Amendment imposed upon the citizens of the state of New York and overturned Roe vs. Wade! Neither of those two laws should have ever been established in the first place. Of course, the liberals' heads are exploding across the country which just adds to my elation. Anyone who thinks a person does not have the right to protect themselves and/or thinks it is acceptable to kill an innocent baby are totally delusional. The irony of the two rulings by the SCOTUS will save innocent lives. On the abortion matter, I posted a picture of a 20-week-old unborn child on my Facebook page; let me assure you that it is not a seed, a glob of cells or a fetus. As the transcript states, "it's a precious tiny human in all its perfection. A miracle created by God, made in His image, by design. God's Greatest Creation."

I find it quite interesting to say the least, that two weeks ago, the liberals could not even define what a woman is and now, all of a sudden, it's all about a woman's rights. "My body my choice," a phrase used by the pro-choice group to attempt to justify their murderous acts on the unborn, is in one way, a correct statement. A woman makes a choice with her body to place her in the position to conceive a child, once conceived it is no longer just her body but also the body of another human being. That other human being now has the same rights as the woman who made the choice to conceive, that other human being has the right to live, to the pursuit of happiness and all of God's wonders. This is the 21st Century; there is no logical reason for a woman who does not want to be impregnated to find herself in that position. There are so many methods of contraception that prevent the chance of conception and are readily available to all, rich, poor or in between. Abortion is not birth control. Abortion is murder!

On a much lighter note, did you know that everybody has the power to make someone else happy? Some do it by entering the room, while some do it by leaving. Donald Trump stated, "I see that everybody is comparing Joe Biden to Jimmy Carter. It would seem to me that is very unfair to Jimmy Carter. Jimmy mishandled crisis after crisis, but Joe Biden has created crisis after crisis." Isn't it funny that liberals can differentiate between 85 genders but can't tell the difference between legal and illegal immigrants? In 1962, you could order guns from mail order catalogs by simply sending in a check. There were no background checks, no license required, and no restrictions. Almost anyone could get a gun. There were also Zero mass shootings. So, it's not about guns, it's about people.

We are in the midst of the longest, saddest, most excruciating and unsatisfying I TOLD YOU SO in the history of the world. To all those whom blindly "vote blue no matter who": As we all watch our retirement plans crash; fuel, heating, cooling, goods and food costs rise to unmanageable levels; crime, filth and despair spread from every deep-blue stronghold, it isn't "Biden's fault" It's Yours. I'm not saying that violence is the right option but when it becomes the only option left on the table you play the hand you were dealt! Remember April 19, 1775, "The shot heard around the world." As always...that's just my opinion!
