

JUST MY OPINION

Roger R. West

The evidence and testimony in the impeachment inquiry so far has the creditability of a three year old complaining that someone took his candy, but doesn't know who. Shifty Schiff (D) and Pelosi (D) both from California are making a mockery of our country. If the testimonies from State Department employee George Kent and acting Ambassador to Ukraine William Taylor are an indication of the "evidence" they have on President Trump, the Democrats are going to be the laughing stock of the world. I know the House impeachment inquiry is not a criminal proceeding and is just to see if there is reason enough to petition a formal impeachment of the President, but so far this inquiry reeks of liberal hatred towards our President, not a fact-based inquiry. Thus far, everything brought forth to the public is hearsay and speculation. That type of testimony would be thrown out at the lowest level of a real judiciary hearing in a New York second. They both admitted they never talked to President Trump and had only heard third hand rumor about the July 25 telephone conversation between President Trump and Ukrainian President Zelensky. I have one word, CIRCUS.

Now the latest Democrat scheme or should we list it as Plan D or E or F. They were so adamant that Trump had performed a quid pro quo with Ukraine and based their impeachment inquiry on that accusation, but that was proved wrong when the transcripts of the phone call were released. Even Taylor admitted in hearing that Zelensky was never aware that any aid was being delayed by President Trump. So now they have pretty much dropped the quid pro quo talk and have changed their narrative to accuse the President of bribery and extortion! This is why I say Plan D,E,F... Their plans just keep collapsing around their feet. The timely release of a locker room type conversation during the campaign didn't work, the fake Russian dossier bought and paid for by the Democrat National Conference and the Hillary campaign didn't work, the Mueller witch hunt didn't work, the quid pro quo didn't work so now it's "bribery."

The Democrats have wasted three years and millions and millions of our hard earned tax money attempting to overthrow a legitimately elected President just because they lost the election that they had bought and paid for. They also know that Trump will win again in 2020! Their hate has overcome any reasonable decision making. I beg Schiff and Pelosi to take one week off and go back to California and see what a total mess their home state is in, then come back to Washington and start fixing what liberal politics have created.

As always...that's just my opinion!
