

KATHERINE G. LUEDERS

Katherine Godbolt Lueders, of Jacksonville, peacefully entered her Lord Jesus Christ's presence Monday, December 21, 2020. She was dearly loved and will be greatly missed. Katherine was born in Jacksonville, to Clarke and Edna Godbolt on October 24, 1930. She attended Andrew Jackson High School. Katherine was married to William "Bill" N. Lueders for 62 years and together they had two children, Wayne and Karen. Katherine was taught about the love of God and the Lord Jesus Christ from her childhood and she received Christ as her personal Lord and Savior at the age of 10 years old. She was a member of Terry Parker Baptist Church.

As a child Katherine loved spending time most with her sister, Carolyn, along with other friends. Her favorite activity was tap dancing and skating. Many of her extended family lived in Welborn and while she loved to visit, she always referred to herself as a "city girl."

Her adult years were spent doing what she loved most: being a wife, mother and homemaker. She had a tremendous love for her family and invested her life supporting and caring for them. It was truly her passion and calling in life. Once her children were grown, she enjoyed helping with her grandchildren, as well as volunteering in church and the community. Katherine will be greatly missed and always held close in the hearts of her loved ones.

Katherine was preceded in death by her parents Clarke and Edna Keene Godbolt; her sister Carolyn (Hank) Poole; her brother Danny Keene; and her loving husband of 62 years, 'Billy' Lueders.

She is survived by her two children, Wayne (June) Lueders of Callahan and Karen Lueders (Donny) Schoenfeld; her brother Jim (Patti) Keene; her four grandchildren Ryan (Lindsay) Schoenfeld, Eric Schoenfeld, Heather Lueders (Jason) Mullis and Ashley Lueders; and three great-grandchildren Anniston, Kinley and Will.

A graveside service was held Tuesday, December 29 with Rev. Chris Coram officiating, at Arlington Memorial Park where she was laid to rest beside her beloved husband.

The family wishes to thank everyone who has loved, prayed and cared so deeply for our family during this difficult time.

Corey-Kerlin Funeral Home assisted the family with arrangements.
