

LARRY CHARLES TYLER, JR.

Larry Charles “The Goat” Tyler, Jr., 56, of Callahan, passed away on February 24, 2023 at his home. He was born June 26, 1966 in Pavo, Georgia to the late Larry Tyler, Sr. and Betty Ann Johnson Tyler. Larry has been a resident of Callahan for the past 19 years. He was raised in Georgia and earned his undergraduate degree from Savannah State University and later his Master’s Degree from Webster University. He proudly served his country in the United States Marine Corps where he met his beautiful wife, Talisia Brown. They were happily married on July 17, 1999 and enjoyed 23 years of amazing, blessed marriage. Larry was a devoted husband, loving father and grandfather who loved his family dearly. After his time in the military, he served in the Army National Guard and Reserves and started a successful career as an Electrician. He had an entrepreneurial spirit and enjoyed many years being self-employed. Larry was known for being a ‘Trekkie’ who had a huge love for Star Trek. He was an avid Alabama Crimson Tide and San Francisco 49er’s fan, loved comedy and enjoyed bringing laughter and smiles through his gift of being a comedian. Larry liked the television show Sanford and Sons, and enjoyed grilling. He was most passionate about his family and enjoyed spending precious time with them. Larry was such a joy to be around and his presence will be truly missed. He was preceded in death by his parents Larry Tyler, Sr. and Betty Ann Johnson Tyler.

Tyler is survived by his loving wife, Talisia Brown Tyler; children April Tyler, Larry (Melissa) Tyler, III, Brittany Robinson and Brandon Tyler; grandchildren Kemarion, Aubrey, Zyron, Marley, Ambriael, Landry, Kaveon, Avery, Braylon, Brayden and Braelyn; siblings Ann (Eugene) Mobley, Fulton (Beverly) King, Deloris (June) Ivey, Precious (Patrick) Sharpe, Brinda (Vernon) Washington, Evans Capers, Trimane (Tiffany) Cooper and Mia (Derrick) Mervin; and mother-in-law Ruth Capers.

Pallbearers were Michael Pickard, Jonathan McClain, Alonzo Meeks, Wilbur Richburg, Derrick Locklear and Jay Adams.

A celebration of Larry’s life was held Wednesday, March 8 at Jacksonville National Cemetery with Pastor Corey L. King officiating and military honors rendered. The family received friends Tuesday, March 7 at Nassau Funeral Home.
