

LAWRENCE WILSON MOODY

Lawrence Wilson Moody, 80, of Callahan, passed away peacefully August 17, 2024, in Fernandina Beach. He was born December 7, 1943 in Jacksonville, to the late Richard Moody and Omie Lawson Moody. A proud Veteran, Lawrence served in the United States Marine Corps, a reflection of his commitment and love for his country. He spent his life embracing the joys of the open road on his beloved motorcycle. Lawrence cherished moments watching his children and grandchildren play softball games at Highlands Little League. An avid reader, Lawrence easily became captivated in the pages of a good novel and took pleasure in playing solitaire on his laptop. He was a fan of Westerns, often found watching them on TV, immersing himself in the tales of the old frontier.

Above all, Lawrence loved his family profoundly, a love that was evident in every aspect of his life and the legacy he leaves behind. His presence will be missed tremendously but warmly remembered by all who knew him. Lawrence is preceded in death by his parents.

Lawrence leaves behind his loving wife Earlene Hartsfield Moody; daughters Melissa (Wayne) Fowler and Ellen (Holly) Hamilton; sisters Edith Crews and Dorothy Hunt; grandchildren Tiffany Raynor, Amanda Popp, John Taylor, Bobby Brooks, Tyler Brooks, Robin Fowler, Wayne Fowler, Rosa Fowler, Richard Fowler, Hayden Fowler, Russell Fowler, Melissa Fowler, Chris Raynor and Mark Popp; great-grandchildren Savanna, Merlin, Lenora, William, Trey, Leland, Brantley, Rozlyn, Christopher, Abigail and Isabella.

The family received friends Wednesday, August 21 at Nassau Funeral Home. A celebration of Lawrence's life was held Thursday, August 22 at Nassau Funeral Home with Pastor Danny Baggett officiating. Interment followed at Jacksonville National Cemetery where military honors were rendered.

Arrangements by Nassau Funeral Home, 541720 US Hwy 1, Callahan, 904-879-1770.
