

LEWIS WASHINGTON LLOYD

Lewis Washington Lloyd, 93, of Folkston, passed away Sunday, September 20, 2020 in Waycross, Georgia. Mr. Lloyd was born December 18, 1926 in Folkston, to the late Allen Jackson Lloyd and Alberta Davis Lloyd. He proudly served his country during World War II, both as a builder of the Liberty Ships in Brunswick and then as a soldier in the US Army. He was a faithful member of the First Baptist Church in Folkston where he served on the Deacon Board. He retired from Gilman Paper Co. after 38 years of service.

Along with his parents; he was preceded in death by his son-in-law Gates Elmore; and his two sisters Lillie Cain and Elizabeth Hubbard.

He is survived by his wife of 72 years, Katherine Crews Lloyd; six children, Geraldine (Kerry) Peeples, Wayne Lewis Lloyd, Kathy Lloyd (Hayward) Altman, David Jackson (Pam) Lloyd, Bonnie Lloyd Elmore and Larry Eugene Lloyd; a brother Allen (Doris) Lloyd; 14 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild.

L.W. Lloyd's life was a testament to his love and commitment to his faith, family, friends and country. He was a kind, humble and generous man with a wry sense of humor and steadfast integrity. He loved the outdoors, family camping trips, gardening and fishing. L.W. also loved carpentry and 'tinkering' in his workshop. In his later years he became an avid baker and often delivered homemade cakes or cookies to friends and community members.

A graveside funeral service was held Thursday, September 24 in Homeland Cemetery.

In honor of Mr. Lloyd, donations can be made to the loving ministry of Baptist Village Nursing Home in Waycross, Georgia, where L.W. lived the last two years of his life and where his beloved wife Katherine still resides. Donations can be directed to Ms. Jan Thrift, Baptist Village Nursing Home, 2650 Carswell Avenue, Waycross, GA 31503.
