On Love and Bereavement: She comes forth from her mother's womb. She grows and plays in the warmth of the sun. A family comes upon her the children of her womb. She thrives and lives in the joy of their laughter, her children and grandchildren, great-grandchildren, too. Now my wife sleeps, peacefully resting upon the bosom of the earth awaiting the resurrection. As it is written 1 Thes. 4:13-18 and 1 Chor. 15:50-58, May the Lord comfort us in our loss, may He bless us and fill us with deep and loving memories. Sleep well, my beautiful wife and mother. ©Stephen Serbrniuk, July 2, 2021.
