

MADELINE SIKES WHITE

Madeline Sikes White, 89, of Folkston, went home to be with her Lord on her birthday, Sunday, August 25 on St. Simons Island, Georgia. She had been at home with her daughters under the care of Hospice of the Golden Isles for 12 days until her home going. She was born August 25, 1930 in Pierce County, Georgia to the late Daniel Eustace Sikes and Evie Fowler Sikes. She had been a bookkeeper for a number of local businesses throughout the years and also became known as “The Tupperware Lady” for many years. She was a member of the Folkston United Methodist Church and a Watchcare member of the Frederica Baptist Church on St. Simons Island.

Along with her parents; she was preceded in death by her loving husband of 54 years, George W. White; three sisters Avis Wallace, Geneva Crews and Virginia S. Wade; two brothers Van Sikes and Tom Sikes.

She is survived by her daughters Denise White and Patricia Wood; a brother Don Sikes; two grandchildren Grayson (Jennifer) Wood and Taylor (Christian) Turner; three great-grandchildren Emily, Brantley and Owen; and a number of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Visitation was held Friday, August 30 at Shepard-Roberson Funeral Home. A service in celebration of Madeline’s life was held Saturday, August 31 at the Folkston United Methodist Church with Rev. Whit Chapman, Rev. Paul Reed and Rev. David Unkles officiating. Burial followed in Sardis Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Frederica Baptist Church Building Fund, 1700 Frederica Road, St. Simons Island, GA 31522; or Hospice of the Golden Isles, 1692 Glynco Parkway, Brunswick, GA 31525.

Condolences may be expressed at www.shepardfh.com.

Arrangements by Shepard-Roberson Funeral Home in Folkston.