

MARGARET MEALOR SHEDD

Margaret Mealor Shedd, 88, a resident of the Life Care Center of Hilliard, and formerly of Toccoa, Georgia, went to her heavenly home on February 25, 2023. Margaret was born May 4, 1934 to the late Lewis and Cleo Flanagan Mealor. She was married to Reverend J.D. Shedd for 48 years. Margaret was a Sunday school teacher who adored children and loved making them laugh. She loved being outdoors, traveling to see different sceneries, going to church, and listening to old gospel hymns. Cooking and baking for family events was one of her favorite things to do.

Margaret spent that last seven years of her life at the Life Care Center of Hilliard where she formed an extended family. Lastly, we would like to thank each and every one of the staff and family members who have helped keep grandma comfortable in her last days. She is preceded in death by her parents; husband Reverend J.D Shedd; son Carl Shedd; daughter Judy Raper; grandson Timothy Shedd; two great-grandchildren; a great-great-grandchild; and brother Pete Mealor.

Those left to cherish her memory include her children Harold (Wanda) Shedd, Roger (Debra) Shedd and Debbie Shedd; seven grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren; 21 great-great-grandchildren; five siblings Jimmy Mealor, Pat Kesler, Helen Kelly, Peggy Saylor and Jackie Smith; and many more that knew her as "Grandma."

The family received friends Wednesday, March 1 prior to the funeral service at Shepard-Roberson Funeral Home in Folkston. The family also received friends Friday, March 3 prior to the funeral service at Acree-Davis Funeral Home in Toccoa, Georgia. Burial followed at Stephens Memorial Gardens in Toccoa.

Condolences may be expressed at: www.shepardrobersonfh.com and acre-davisfh.com.

Shepard-Roberson Funeral Home, Folkston and Acree-Davis Funeral Home, 90 South Pond Street, Toccoa, assisted the Shedd family.
