

MARK RUSSELL MANGUM

Mark Russell Mangum, lovingly known as ‘Pa’, 64, of Jacksonville, passed away Friday, February 21, 2020 under the care of Hospice of South Georgia. The Florida native was a truck driver who loved the Lord, his family and especially his wife of 38 years. Pa enjoyed spending time with his family, telling stories, laughing, working on antique cars, and collecting “treasures” to restore. He led his family humbly by example through his faith and his legacy will live on. He was predeceased in death by his parents Roy and Margie Mangum; and his brother Glen Carson Mangum.

Survivors are his wife, Sherri Colson Mangum of Jacksonville; four daughters, Krystal Watson of Jacksonville, Rebecca (AJ) Nace of Macclenny, Jessie (Jason) Morris of Lake City, South Carolina and Faith Mangum of Jacksonville; grandchildren Glen Mangum, Layton Fridley, Madalin Fridley, Audrey Nace, Benjamin Nace and Jasper Diaz; his siblings Nancy (Bob) Sikes of Macclenny, Coleen Catrett (Bob) Ammiano of Callahan, Wayne (Nicole) Mangum of Callahan, Jackie Langford of Callahan, Mitchell (Tracy) Mangum of Orange Park and Doyle (Brandi) Mangum of Callahan; and many nieces, nephews and very dear friends.

Private memorial services will be held by the family. Rinehart and Sons Funeral Home of Jesup, is in charge of arrangements.
