

NATHAN COLE GALLANT

Nathan 'Nate' Cole Gallant, 19, of Jacksonville, passed away Sunday, January 12, 2020. He was born in Jacksonville and was a graduate of Lighthouse Christian School. Nate was the 'entertainer' of his close-knit family, always making everyone laugh with his talent for voice impersonations. He enjoyed hunting, going to the beach and working out at the gym. Nate loved spending time with his family, playing pool and bowling. His siblings were his best friends and he adored his nieces.

He is survived by his parents Ray and Diane Gallant of Jacksonville; brother Rey (Ashley) Montemayor of St. Augustine; sisters Jessica Crosby of Jacksonville and Victoria Gallant of Sanderson; nieces Addison and Josie; maternal grandmother Carol Waite of Jacksonville; paternal grandfather Paul Gallant of Mississippi; and paternal grandmother Diana Ritter of Maryland.

A graveside funeral service was held Friday, January 17 at Gethsemane Memorial Gardens, Jacksonville, with Reverend Jeff Carter officiating.

Arrangements by Warren Funeral Services of Baldwin.
