

PATRICIA COOK QUAILE

Patricia Charlene Cook Quaile, 77, of Callahan, passed away November 27, 2023, at her home surrounded by her loved ones. She battled cancer like a warrior for many years only to lose the final battle. Patsy was born on June 19, 1946, to Agnes and Amous Cook who already had two daughters, Lucy Maxine (Jasper) Griffin and Sandra (Jerry) Goldsberry. Patsy was born a twin to her brother Michael (Lisa) Cook, to whom she adored, and had several nieces and nephews. The Cook family grew up in the small town of Callahan.

Patsy married the love of her life, William John Quaile, Jr. July 5, 1995 and that's when their 28-year love story began. Bill brought into the marriage two daughters Nancy (Mike) Bailey and her children Kevin and Rachel and grandson Hayden, Patricia A. Quaile (fiancé, Jeff Jones) and her son Joseph Kearns. Patsy brought into the marriage a son Drew (Felicia) Sauls and their children JD, Ethan and Emmee.

Patsy truly believed in serving her community and felt that connecting with others was time well spent. She believed our world could be a better place if everyone would simply dedicate a little of their time towards helping others in need. Patsy spent most of her time volunteering for many different organizations which included the Lions Club, OES as Past Worthy Matron, West Nassau Chamber of Commerce, Planning and Zoning Board where she started The Relay for Life and worked it for 3 years, Take Stock in Children where she mentored Shannon Morgan for 5 years. Patsy and Johnny Page started the Military Appreciation in Callahan. She started the Westside Crisis Hotline as well as many others. Her favorite job was working as a paralegal.

Patsy loved her flower garden, crafting, her many pets and spending time with her family. She will be missed by those she loved and the people whose lives she made a difference in.

Arrangements under the direction of Nassau Funeral Home, Callahan, 904-879-1770.

Visit www.nassaufh.com to sign the family's guest book.