

PEGGY WALDRON

Peggy Waldron, 76, of Bryceville, went home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on the morning of Thursday, July 4, 2019. Peggy was born in Dodge County Georgia on September 18, 1942. She lived for many years with her husband Jim in Jacksonville, before moving to Bryceville in 1989. At her passing, she was a member of Dinsmore Baptist Church. She was a former member of Grace Baptist Church in Jacksonville for many years.

Peggy worked for many years in the Duval County School system as a Teacher's Aide, investing time in young people's lives. After retiring, she and Jim traveled the country in their RV. She loved Jesus, her husband, her sons, daughter-in-laws, sisters, family, friends and especially her grandchildren very much. Peggy really enjoyed spending time with her family and friends and would often make trips to Georgia to see her son Mike's family and her four sisters. She was a godly wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. Peggy will be greatly missed but always remembered by those whose lives she has touched.

Peggy is survived by her husband James (Jim) Waldron; sons Michael 'Mike' (Barbara) Waldron and John Adam (Julie) Waldron; five grandchildren Justin, Wesley (Mike and Barbara) Andrew, Matthew and Kara (John and Julie); four sisters Jimmie Faye Delaney, Barbara (Ronnie) Powell, Dot Dube' and Judy (Rene) Dykes; and many nephews and two nieces.

The family received friends prior to the funeral service held Monday, July 8 in the Nassau Funeral Home Chapel with Dr. Winson Butler officiating. Interment followed in the Jacksonville National Cemetery.
