

RAYMOND C. FUGLESTAD

Raymond Charles Fuglestad, fondly known as “Ray,” 55, of Callahan, passed away May 29, 2024. He was born June 24, 1968, on the Langley Air Force Base in Virginia to the late Kenneth Wayne Fuglestad and late Maureen Catherine Poss. Ray was a master carpenter who poured his heart into his work. His skillful hands created not just structures, but also lasting memories for those fortunate enough to benefit from his expertise. Ray had a passion for the outdoors. Whether he was casting lines into the water, tinkering with engines, or simply enjoying the company of his cherished dog, “Chevy.” He found solace in the simple joys of life. In this time of sorrow, the family extends their heartfelt gratitude for the outpouring of love and support received from friends, family, and the community.

Ray is survived by his loving wife Traci Fuglestad; two children Matthew (Noel) Fuglestad and Danielle Fuglestad; and one brother Gary Fuglestad.

A funeral service to celebrate Ray’s life will be held Monday, June 10 at 12 p.m. at Nassau Funeral Home, 541720 US 1, Callahan, officiated by Pastor Gerald Wollitz. The tribute above was lovingly crafted by Ray’s family, who will forever hold him dear in their hearts.

Arrangements under the direction of Nassau Funeral Home, Callahan, 904-879-1770.
