
JUST MY OPINION

Roger R. West

If you missed President Donald Trump's "State of the Union" address last week, you missed witnessing the best SOTU ever! WOW does he ever make me proud to call him our President. I watched every second of it and was so impressed with the accomplishments that have occurred under his leadership in just two years while fighting Congress the whole way through.

Wednesday, I decided to read some of the stories the main stream media had written about the SOTU address. Evidently, somehow, they watched a different SOTU address than I did. The very first and last article I read was written by a CNN reporter. According to him, President Trump was just ho-hum in his deliverance of the speech and did nothing more than wine about his wall. Sadly, people will read and listen to this bull hockey and believe it.

President Trump politely offered the advice as a leader for the two major parties to work together instead of continuing the sharp partisan line. He stated, "We must choose between greatness or gridlock, results or resistance, vision or vengeance, incredible progress or pointless destruction. Tonight, I ask you to choose greatness. If there is going to be peace and legislation, there cannot be war and investigation. It just doesn't work that way! We must be united at home to defeat our adversaries abroad."

My favorite two moments in the entire speech was when President Trump stated, "Let us work together to build a culture that cherishes innocent life. And let us reaffirm a fundamental truth: all children, born or unborn, are made in the holy image of God." Amen! The second was when he stated, "Here, in the United States, we are alarmed by new calls to adopt socialism in our country. America was founded on liberty and independence— not government coercion, domination and control. We are born free and we will stay free. Tonight, we renew our resolve that America will never be a socialist country." At that very moment Bernie Sanders looked as if he had just lost his best and only friend.

Immediately after the address, the memes and cartoons flooded social media depicting the childish behavior of the Democrats during the President's address. One picture that surfaced was of someone placing a towel over the right side of their TV so that they didn't have to watch Pelosi sitting behind the President chewing her cud or whatever she was doing with her tongue. The New Democrat Party members truly showed their disdain toward our President from start to finish. They proved that they would rather see America crumble than for President Trump to succeed. So sad!

Keep on keeping on President Trump, we that love our Republic have your back! God bless President Trump and America.

As always...that's just my opinion!
