

ROY B. STOUTENBOROUGH, JR.

Roy B. Stoutenborough, Jr., 59, passed away January 20, 2020 at UF Health in Jacksonville, following a short battle with thyroid cancer. He was born in Hahn, Germany on August 14, 1960, the youngest of four children of Ada Stoutenborough and the late Roy B.

Stoutenborough, Sr.

Roy joined the US Air Force right out of high school, where he learned his Communications Equipment trade. After serving our country, he went to work for MCI in New Jersey. Wanting to be closer to parents and siblings, he moved his family to Florida and resided in Glen St. Mary for the last 20 years. He was a member of the American Legion. Roy's passions were motorcycles, family and protecting all he loved dearly. He searched long and hard for his perfect mate and was ecstatic to find Lores, the final love of his life. They spent his last year riding motorcycles and enjoying life. Roy is remembered by his family and friends as a loving, thoughtful son, kind spirit and a true friend. Roy was preceded in death by his son Raymond and father Roy, Sr.

He leaves behind a loving family including his mother, Ada; two daughters Kimberly and Stephanie; grandson Jacob Lewis Bell; three sisters Janet, Kathy and Cindy; and five nieces and six great nieces and nephews.

A memorial service was held Saturday, February 1 at Oak Leaf Baptist Church, Orange Park, with Brother Robert officiating.
