

SANDRA GWENDOLYN WILSON

Sandra Gwendolyn Wilson, 86, of Callahan, peacefully passed away September 9, 2024, into the arms of Jesus, surrounded by her family, following a long illness. Sandra was born September 7, 1938 to George G. McKenney and Mary Irene McKenney in Chattanooga, TN.

She was married to the love of her life, George M. Wilson, for 61 years. After raising children, she decided to return to school and earn her high school diploma. She was a woman who, once she set her mind to a task, completed it. Before acquiring that diploma, she had to learn to read. Completing all this in just four years, and she graduated Salutatorian of her class.

Additionally, she loved singing, took voice lessons and sang solos for her church in earlier years. She was an inspiring example for anyone who lacked self-esteem. Making friends came easy to her, but of all her attributes, she loved her Lord Jesus the most. Sandra is predeceased by her parents; and grandson Justin Wilson (who they helped raise).

She leaves behind her husband, George; children Talesa (Glenn) Lloyd, Carl (Ruth) Dennis, Mark (Tannya) Wilson and Kim Hawkins (Kenneth Lloyd); grandchildren Christian, Cass, Aaron (Amy), Leah (Isaac), Nathan (Nicole), Mark, Jr. (Sandra), Stephen, Lilly and Jimmy; and 14 great-grandchildren.

The family received friends September 12 at Cedar Bay Funeral Home, Jacksonville. The funeral service was held Friday, September 13 at The Anchor Church of God in Callahan. Interment followed at Green Pine Cemetery, Yulee.

Arrangements by Cedar Bay Funeral Home, Jacksonville.
